Hobbies

DIY wonders, old worlds, new places

I am a software developer with seven years of experience specializing in complex web development, with expertise spanning front-end and soft back-end technologies.

Throughout my career, I have been involved in creating user interfaces, managing client-server communication, designing database architectures, testing, and occasionally overseeing project management. My prior experience as a market researcher enhances my ability to act as a client liaison, analyzing technological requirements, implementing functionalities, and delivering training sessions.

I am seeking job opportunities that will allow me to maximize my potential and further develop my skills and knowledge while working with experienced mentors.

I kindly invite you to look at my GitHub portfolio.
